ANTIOCH

75

Antioch is a Catholic weekend experience for teens led by teens with the help of adult advisors and a the priests of our Parishes. It is called Antioch because, “It was at Antioch that the disciples were first called Christians.” (Acts 11:26)

The “Antioch Weekend” offers an opportunity for teens to get away for the weekend and discover a little more about who they are, and think about the importance of their relationships with God and others. The weekend consists of talks given by other teens, discussions, reflections, prayer, and time out for just plain fun. The entire weekend passes very quickly, but many good friendships have started on the weekend. This is our 75th Antioch, and countless teens have had a tremendous experience over the years. Talk to someone who’s been and give it a try!

The Antioch Weekend is sponsored by the youth ministries of St. Luke in Long Valley and St. Lawrence in Chester. The weekend will be held at the host Parish, St. Lawrence (375 Main St., Chester, NJ).
